POINTS SCORING LOGIC:

Batsman

- For each 'four', batsman will be given 1 point
- For each 'six', batsman will be given 2 points.
- 1 point will be given for every 5 runs scored by batsman (0.2 point per run).

Bowler

- For each wicket taken by bowler, 4 points will be given.
- For each maiden bowled by bowler, 4 points will be given.
- If overall economy rate of bowler is less than or equal to 7.5, 2 points will be given for each over bowled. Similarly 1 point will be given per over if economy rate is less than or equal to 10.

For all-rounder, both batting and bowling scores will be added to get the score.

Rules and Regulation:

i. You can select players for future matches but you have to select your player before the start of the match.

ii. If you forget to select players, your score will be zero for that match.

iii. Same player can be selected as a batsman ,as a bowler.

iv. If your selected player does not get chance to bat/bowl, zero points will be given to that player. (same if the player gets 'retired hurt' without playing).

v. You cannot quit in the middle of the tournament.
